

A bronze sculpture of a woman with a dog on her head, standing in a courtyard in front of a modern building. The woman is depicted in a standing, slightly turned pose, with her right hand on her hip. The dog is perched on her head, facing left. The sculpture is mounted on a dark, textured base. The background features a modern building with large windows and a balcony. A yellow banner with red text is positioned diagonally across the right side of the image.
